

The 2012 Parent Survival Skills Series

"It's a computerized soccer game. The object is to get your kids to all the practices and games and still find time for a life."

The St. Bede School Parent Association is pleased to present three one hour workshops for parents. The workshops will be led by Barbara Hancock MFT, teacher, counselor, and 20 year veteran of helping parents manage the challenges of raising a family.

"Keeping Your Family Sane by Managing Family Stress"

Wednesday, January 18, 2011 @ 6:30 p.m.

For parents with children of all ages

"What is Normal? A Developmental Barometer for the School Age Child 5-12"

Tuesday March 20, 2012 @ 6:30 p.m.

For parents with children ages 5-12

"A Parents Tool Box for Surviving Middle School"

Wednesday, May 9, 2012 @ 6:30 p.m.

For parents with Middle School children

Any member of the St. Bede parish is welcome to attend, you do not have to be a parent at our parish school to attend.

All workshops will be held in the Parish Center John XXIII Room and refreshments will be served. There is no cost to attend, just RSVP to: Holly Bauer at hbauer@buckley.org